

city could take care of any trouble when it came. The raid on the Glad Day last Sunday of 4.24. was the trigger. You know the rest of the story. The various attacks in the city showed a similar pattern of attack that was followed. This shows a well planned and organized effort prompting the riots.

Nearly every citizen is proud of Mr. Romney and the efforts of the police and firemen made. The two police & firemen were heroes.

In the past couple of weeks I have been feeling fine - quite normal after about four months of resting most of the time. I would request I expect to enter the hospital and have both chest tubes removed. After that order is past and normalcy restored, I may be good for another year or more years.

Hope your weather has become
